1. Students who have obtained a term GPA of 1.50 or above in the second term of Year 1 are eligible for major declaration.

2. Students will be allowed to choose from any one of the following programmes for their second year programme major:
   - Architectural Studies
   - Economics
   - Geography and Resource Management
   - Government and Public Administration
   - Journalism and Communication
   - Psychology
   - Sociology
   - Urban Studies

3. All programmes, except Architectural Studies (ARCH) and Government and Public Administration (GPAD), will NOT set any admission requirements for students. Requirements of ARCH and GPAD are as follows:

   Architectural Studies
   Students should have attained (1) grades of B or above in ARCH1001 as well as one or more other ARCH courses, AND (2) an overall grade point average of 3.00 or above in year 1 study. Students who fail to meet any one of the above requirements may still be considered for admission to the programme, subject to the interview arranged for those potential applicants, who shall submit design portfolio of their work in ARCH1001 and any related work.

   Government and Public Administration
   Students should (1) have taken one or more GPAD courses and obtained an average grade of B- or above OR (2) attained an overall grade point average of 2.70 or above in Year 1 study. Students who cannot fulfil any one of the above requirements can still apply for enrolling in the GPAD programme. The Department will consider those applications on the basis of interview performance.

4. Students must declare major via CUSIS (“Declare Major” function) within the application period from 22 May to 8 June 2016. Students, except those who will declare GPAD or ARCH as major, are only required to indicate the “1st
Choice”; students who will declare GPAD or ARCH as major are required to indicate both “1st Choice” and “2nd Choice”.

5. Students can check the status of their major assignment on CUSIS (“Declare Major” function) on 11 July 2016. Formal notification letter from RES will be sent to students by late July 2016. Student records under CUSIS will be updated with effect from 1 August 2016 showing the new major programme.

29 March 2016